About R&L Global

R&L Global is a full-service restoration and construction company serving Texas and the entire Gulf Coast. With over 14 years in the industry, we are familiar with the specific challenges commercial property owners face. Our goal is to make the life of our client's easier by being the only company they have to call when they need construction, remodeling or restoration services.

We handle all areas of commercial remodeling including exterior renovations, interior renovations, reconstruction and disaster recovery. Having worked on hundreds of commercial properties, we understand how even an hour of downtime can impact business. This is why we carefully plan each project, which results in minimal business interruption.
